Michigan's Oosterbaan

As an athlete, a coach, a person, Benjamin Gaylord Oosterbaan for 48 years has offered his special commitment to excellence in athletics at Michigan.

He was three times a football All-American as well as an All-Time All-American, the Big Ten's leading hitter in baseball, a basketball All-American, football captain, and coach who produced championships his first three seasons and won 66 per cent of all his games.

His accomplishments as a man were immense and figure heavily in what is known as Michigan Tradition.

This 1972 Gridiron Guide is dedicated to Bennie Oosterbaan.

Michigan's 1972 Football Outlook

Michigan may have lost 19 lettermen, including four All-Americans, from the undefeated Big Ten champions, but 37 numeral winners return to give Bo Schembechler the nucleus of another strong squad, one capable of maintaining the 28-5 pace set over the last three years.

Replacements must be found for 13 starters but the Wolverines' depth was so great last season that experienced men are available at all positions. The strength of last season's second liners is indicated by the fact that Michigan could start only one sophomore.

The offense returns a solid line, three experienced quarterbacks and a wealth of running backs, despite the graduation of three starters. Defensively, four starters return from the unit that led the nation in two categories and was second in another. At the other positions, veterans are ready to move up. The secondary, however, is being rebuilt.

The only question mark could be placekicking but sophomore Mike Lantry has shown a good leg and could develop while senior John Daniels is also capable.

OFFENSIVE BACKS

Powerful Ed Shuttlesworth (875 yards as a soph) handles the fullback chores with Bob Thornbladh (124), also a junior, ready in reserve. Juniors Harry Banks (109, 4 TD's) and Alan Walker (403, 5 TD's) have great speed at tailback and both are good blockers. Two more juniors, Larry Gustafson (27 rushing, 57 receiving) and Clint Haslerig (25 rushing, 49 receiving) are experienced at wingback and 9.5 soph Gil Chapman adds an extra threat at the position. Juniors Kevin Casey, Tom Slade and Larry Cipa have all had a lot of playing at quarterback, as has senior Jack McBride. Soph Dennis Franklin will push the vets while Chuck Heater and Glenn Franklin add depth at the running positions.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Will be even bigger than last year's as senior Paul Seymour moves to strong tackle from tight end and 6-6 junior Paul Seal takes over his old position. Junior Curtis Tucker moves from tackle to guard joining junior Mike Hoban at Reggie McKenzie's spot. Senior Bill Hart takes over at center while Tom Coyle and Jim Coode are returning starters at guard and tackle. Senior Jerry Schumacher and junior Tom Poplawski are veteran replacements at guard and tackle and soph Dennis Franks is a strong center candidate.

RECEIVERS

Gustafson, Haslerig and Chapman at wingback, seniors Bo Rather, Gary Coakley and John Daniels at split end give Michigan great speed on the flanks. Rather (181 yards, 2 TD's) will be a great threat while Seal (6-6, 213) at tight end also has the speed to run deep patterns. Two giant sophs, C. J. Kupec (6-8, 235) and Greg Den-Boer (6-6, 233) are also ready at tight end.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Powerful interior with returning starters Fred Grambau (senior) and Dave Gallagher (junior) at tackles and senior starter Greg Ellis at middle guard. Two-year lettermen Clint Spearman and Don Eaton move in at the ends and there is a wealth of depth. Juniors Walt Williamson, Larry Johnson and Don Coleman all are strong at end and senior Tony Smith and junior Doug Troszak are letterwinners at tackle. Walt Sexton is also a letterwinner at middle guard, making it the most veteran unit on the squad.

LINEBACKERS

All-American Mike Taylor must be replaced but the backers will be a strength once again. Senior Tom Kee returns at outside linebacker where he is excellent on pass coverage and a powerful hitter. Quick juniors Craig Mutch and Mike Day are behind. Strong soph prospect Steve Strinko (6-3, 235) is ready to step in immediately. Junior Jovan Vercel and Soph Carl Russ are fine prospects.

SECONDARY

Three starters have graduated but capable replacements are available. Senior Randy Logan is one of the best on the short side while junior Dave Elliott moves to safety after playing behind Logan. Junior Tom Drake moves in at the wide side and strong hitter Geoff Steger takes over at Wolf. Senior Dave Zuccarelli is a strong reserve behind Steger as is junior Barry Dotzauer behind Drake. Top soph prospects Dave Brown and Linwood Harden are ready at safety and short side.

Specialists

PUNTING — Dotzauer (40.3 average) backed up by Steger. Casey can also punt if needed.

FG. EXT. PT. — Sophomore Mike Lantry a strong leftfooted kicker. Daniels also has experience.

KICKOFFS — Lantry has ability to reach end zone consistently with junior Dave Brandon in reserve.

KICKOFF RETURNS — Rather and Banks were one-two on the team last year and Chapman adds his sensational speed. Brown, who returned one for a score in Notre Dame frosh game, is also a possibility.

PUNT RETURNS — Drake and Elliott are both experienced with Drake breaking a big return against Purdue last year. Brown once again could see action, along with Logan.

Player Switches

PAUL SEYMOUR — Second Team All-Big Ten tight end moved to strong tackle to utilize his size (6-5, 250) and great blocking ability. Considered by some to be the finest blocking tight end in the country last year.

CURTIS TUCKER — Named to All-Big Ten second squad at tackle by one wire service, now moves to guard with switch of Seymour. Has great strength (6-1, 240) and has adapted well.

DAVE ELLIOTT — Played behind Logan at short side last year and now moves to safety. Strong hitter, which is needed for position, and smart player with nose for the ball.

JOHN DANIELS — Lettered as second team safety two years ago, now goes to split end. Great athlete with size, speed, hands. Was a high school quarterback.

BARRY DOTZAUER — Team's punter who also played backup safety. Has moved to wide side halfback to utilize his speed. Aggresive for size (162).

GREG KOSS — One of Michigan's many soph quarterbacks last year who has moved to safety. Has great height (6-5), surprisingly tough hitter.

Key Sophomores

STEVE STRINKO—Outstanding linebacker prospect at 6-3, 235. Should get starting nod. Top high school athlete in Cincinnati area two years ago.

GIL CHAPMAN — Fastest man to play at Michigan in several years, will use his sprinter's speed at wingback. Caught 60-yard TD bomb in spring game. Also a threat as a kick returner.

DENNIS FRANKLIN — Extremely quick soph quarterback with strong arm. Threw big TD strike to Chapman in spring, led frosh in passing. All-State from Massillon, Ohio.

DENNIS FRANKS — Outstanding lineman in Western Pennsylvania two years ago, has developed well at center. Will be able backup man.

DAVE BROWN — Excellent athlete who will operate at safety. Has fine sense of ball, great hands and speed. Performs well as a kick returner.

CHUCK HEATER — Strong running back from Tiffin, Ohio who can play tailback or fullback. Will provide depth in several areas.

Bo Schembechler
Head Coach

'Bo' Sets Busy Pace as 'M' Coach

Glenn E. (Bo) Schembechler, Michigan's 13th head football coach, can be measured by more than football victories. He walks many paths.

Certainly, as a coach his credentials are impressive. His first three Michigan teams have won 28 of 33 football games, including two Big Ten championships and two Rose Bowl trips. He engineered the classic upset of Ohio State in 1969 that helped him earn national Coach of the Year Honors.

During the past two seasons Michigan has won 20 of 21 regular season games including 11 in a row in 1971.

Much of Schembechler's non-football activities centers around a growing family of four boys, three teenagers and a spunky three-year-old. Then there's an occasional Michigan hockey game, a sport Bo rates second only to football, or a speaking engagement.

Schembechler conducts a football clinic each year for high school coaches, is a guest lecturer at several of the top national clinics, maintains a busy recruiting pace and still schedules two or three weeks of vacation with his family, usually in northern Michigan.

Schembechler also runs. For three miles he'll walk and run as a means of keeping his weight under 180 pounds. Running and a diet were the methods he used to overcome the effects of a mild heart attack on the eve of Michigan's 1970 Rose Bowl game.

With these interests and commitments he has a three-year record of 28-5-0 — that's a winning percentage of .848 which is better than any Michigan coach since 1900.

Schembechler (pronounced SHEM-beck-lur), brought a solid football background to Michigan. In his six seasons as head football coach at Miami of Ohio his teams posted a 40-17-3 overall record, and a 27-8-1 record in the Mid-American Conference. His teams won two MAC co-championships, finished second twice and tied for third once. He has never coached a losing team.

Schembechler was the fourth straight head coach at Miami to take over a Big Ten team. Woody Hayes (Ohio State), Ara Parseghian (Northwestern), and John Pont (Indiana) had coached Miami teams since 1949. He replaced Bump Elliott, now Iowa's Athletic Director, as head coach at Michigan and is only the fourth head coach of the Wolverines since Fritz Crisler was appointed in 1938.

Voted MAC Coach of the Year in 1965 and Ohio Coach of the Year in 1966, Bo engineered upsets of Northwestern in 1964 (28-27) and Indiana in 1966 (20-10).

Schembechler, who graduated from Miami in 1951 and received a master's degree in education from Ohio State in 1952, has an extensive coaching background. He started as a graduate assistant under Hayes at Ohio State in 1951, then served two years in the Army.

He was a line coach at Presbyterian College in 1954, a line coach at Bowling Green in 1955, and joined Parseghian's staff at Northwestern in 1956. Schembechler rejoined Hayes at Ohio State in 1958 and served five seasons as line coach before taking over the head job at Miami in 1963.

The former Barberton, Ohio prep all-starter was an offensive tackle at Miami for three years, playing under George Blackburn and Hayes. He also was an outstanding left-hander pitcher for Miami. He was a teammate and roommate of Indiana's John Pont on the 1950 Miami football team.

Bo and his wife, Millie, have four children: Chip, 16, Geoffrey, 14, Matthew, 13, and Glenn E. III, almost three years old.

Michigan's Coaching Staff

Jim Young

JIM YOUNG, Defensive Coordinator

Jim Young, defensive coordinator and coach of the linebackers, has a sound football background that includes playing on championship collegiate teams in two different conferences. Young began his career as a member of the 1954 Ohio State squad which won the national championship and the Rose Bowl. He transferred to Bowling Green the next fall and was on its 1956 Mid-American title team.

He graduated in 1957 from Bowling Green and remained as an assistant under Doyt Perry while earning a master's degree. He moved to Findlay (Ohio) College as an assistant football coach and head coach of wrestling and track in 1958-59, returning to Bowling Green as head wrestling coach and freshman football coach in 1959.

At Findlay, his wrestling team was undefeated in 11 starts and his track team won the Mid-Ohio League crown after an 8-2 season. His 1959 Bowling Green freshman football team won three of five and his varsity wrestlers had an 11-0 season and the Mid-American championship.

In 1960 Young moved to Lima Shawnee High School as head football coach where his teams captured two consecutive Western Buckeye League championships, winning 28, losing 10 and tying 2 over four seasons. At one time they won 23 straight, scoring 448 points in 1963.

Young joined 'Bo' Schembechler's staff at Miami in 1964, yielding his Shawnee post to another Michigan assistant, Larry Smith. Young coached under Schembechler for five years at Miami.

Young was called on to take over the duties of head coach when Bo Schembechler was hospitalized the morning of the 1970 Rose Bowl.

Jim and his wife, Jane of Van Wert, O., have four daughters: Laura, 13, Elaine, 11, Joan, 10, and Colleen, 6.

JERRY HANLON, Offensive Line

Jerry Hanlon

Jerry Hanlon coaches Michigan's offensive line. Hanlon, from North Bend, Ohio was an offensive halfback during the 1953-55 seasons at Miami. He played halfback on the Redskin teams that won two Mid-American Conference titles. His college coach was Ara Parseghian.

As a player, Hanlon's college teams achieved a 24-2-1 record, while his teams at Taylor High School were 25-7-1.

Following graduation from Miami, Hanlon returned to Taylor for a year as assistant football coach, then moved to Canton Catholic High where he assisted in football four years and was head basketball coach his final year.

His next position was at Youngstown Ursuline, where he rebuilt football and produced a 19-5-3 record in three campaigns. Hanlon spent one year at Cleveland St. Edwards, where he had a 7-3 football season before joining another Miami graduate, John McVay, at the University of Dayton in 1965. The following year he joined Schembechler.

Hanlon is married to the former Anne Hatfield, a native of Norma, Tennessee. The couple has two sons, Scott, 16, and Mickey, 12, and a daughter, Kelly Ann, 4.

GEORGE MANS, Defensive Ends

George Mans

George Mans, one of the most respected assistant coaches in the Big Ten, starts his sixth season on the Michigan staff. He is the defensive end coach.

Mans, who has helped develop a series of outstanding pass receivers at Michigan (Jack Clancy, Jim Berline, Jim Mandich), was a three-year letterwinner at Michigan, playing offensive and defensive end. He was the team captain for Bump Elliott in 1961.

Mans has directed Michigan's recruiting efforts in the Detroit area which has supplied a growing list of talented athletes. Mans was born in Trenton where he was an all-state football player.

He played for the Wolverines during the 1959-60-61 seasons and then entered the automotive field with General Motors until 1964. He served a year as an assistant coach at Michigan Tech and two years at Eastern Michigan before joining Elliott's staff at Michigan in 1966.

Mans is married to the former Carol Grimes of Piqua, Ohio and has a two-year-old daughter, Kristin.

TIRRELL BURTON, Offensive Ends

Tirrell Burton

Tirrell Burton starts his third year on the Wolverines' football staff. During his first two seasons his frosh teams were 4-2, producing many players for this season's varsity.

Burton joins one of his former Miami of Ohio teammates, Jerry Hanlon, on the 'M' staff. Burton has a long standing relationship with Miami, having played his high school ball in Oxford, then becoming a star halfback and hurdler for the Redskins and later coaching.

Burton twice was named All-Mid-American Conference and in his senior year averaged 8.8 yards per carry and scored 84 points. Burton also ran for the Miami track team and reached the NCAA finals in 1955 in the 120-yard hurdles.

After graduating from Miami in 1956 Burton played a season for the Ottawa Rough Riders. He then moved to Cincinnati where he taught and coached junior high football from 1957 to 1963 and earned his master's degree from Miami.

In 1963 Burton became assistant football coach at Withrow in Cincinnati and two years later became head coach at Hughes for two years. Burton then was named offensive backfield coach at Central State of Ohio. He held that post for a year, then returned to Miami as an assistant for one year before joining Bo Schembechler's staff.

Burton and his wife, Sue, have two children, Ellen, 11, and Mark, 8.

FRANK MALONEY, Defensive Line

Frank Maloney

Frank Maloney, defensive line coach, is in his fifth season as a Michigan staff member.

A Michigan letterman in football, he returned to Michigan in the spring of 1968 and coached the offensive line under Bump Elliott.

Maloney attended high school at Mount Carmel in Chicago where he was a center and linebacker. In 1957, he was voted the most valuable player on the team as well as receiving All-Catholic and All-City honors. In his senior year he was chosen as a recipient for a Mayor Daley Youth Foundation Scholarship to the college of his choice.

Maloney played guard and linebacker on Elliott's 1959-60-61 teams. He earned the Fielding H. Yost Award for proficiency in scholarship and athletics in 1961.

Maloney studied law for one year at Northwestern, then in 1963 was named head football coach at Mount Carmel High. His five-year record in the tough Chicago Catholic League was 31-12-1. In 1964, Mount Carmel won the South Section title and was runner-up in the Catholic League. In 1967, his team won the City Championship of Chicago by defeating Dunbar High 37-0 before 60,000 fans at Soldiers Field. Three of Maloney's teams reached the playoffs.

Maloney was chosen "Coach of the Year" for the South Side of Chicago in 1964 and was the "Prep Coach of the Year" for the Chicago area in 1967. Maloney married the former Kathy Schumacher of Chicago June 6, 1970.

LARRY SMITH, Offensive Interior Line

Larry Smith

Larry Smith, the interior line coach for Michigan, is another import from the Miami staff. Smith is a 1962 graduate of Bowling Green. The Van Wert, Ohio native attended the U.S. Military Academy at West Point before transferring to BG. He was a two-way end at Bowling Green and co-captain of the 1961 Mid-American conference champions.

Before joining the Miami staff, Smith was head coach at Lima Shawnee High School for three years, posting a 21-8-1 record and winning two Western Buckeye League titles, after taking over from Jim Young. His 1964 team was 8-2, the 1965 team was 3-6-1 and the 1966 team bounced back to post a 10-0 record. Shawnee led the State of Ohio in defense that year, permitting only six points all season.

Smith is married to the former Cheryl Neuenschwander of Lima and has a daughter, Alicia Renee, who will be two years old in November.

CHUCK STOBART, Offensive Backfield

Chuck Stobart

Charles (Chuck) Stobart, Michigan's offensive backfield coach, was the starting quarterback at Ohio University for most of his three years, and a standout infielder for two seasons. He has both a bachelor's degree in education and masters in school administration from his alma mater. He was a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, national men's leadership honorary, and Kappa Delta Pi, education honorary. He was picked senior athlete of year 1958.

In 1959, Stobart coached Berne Union High School to an 8-1 record, and moved on to Gallipolis High School where his team was 9-0 and won the Southeastern Ohio Championship in 1960. He was named the district coach of the year.

From 1961 through 1964, Stobart was football coach at Mt. Vernon, where his teams developed rapidly, winning 17 of their last 18 games following two losing seasons. His 1963 team was unbeaten and untied in nine games, and ranked ninth in the state poll. He helped coach the south team in the 1964 Ohio North-South All-Star game.

Stobart moved into the college coaching ranks in 1965 as offensive backfield and head baseball coach at Marshall. He took a similar position at the University of Cincinnati in 1966, before joining 'Bo' Schembechler at Miami in 1967.

His wife is the former Diana June Chancey, a native of Ripley, West Va. The couple has three children, Janna, 15, David, 12, and Greg, 8.

GARY MOELLER, Defensive Backs

Gary Moeller

Gary Moeller, who is in charge of the defensive backs, has never been associated with a losing football team. An outstanding lineman at Lima (Ohio) High, Moeller was a center and linebacker at Ohio State University. He played on the 1961 team that won the Big Ten championship and was ranked second in the final national polls. Moeller captained the 1962 Buckeye team.

Moeller, who taught at Union High in Grand Rapids and played professional football with the Grand Rapids Blazers in 1963, became an assistant football coach at Bellefontaine High in Ohio the following season. He was appointed head coach in 1965 and coached Bellefontaine to two straight Miami Valley League titles in 1965 and 1966, posting a two-year mark of 13-4-3.

Moeller joined Bo Schembechler's staff at Miami in 1967.

He married the former Ann Morrison of Lima, Ohio, and they have three children, Susie, 11, Amy, 9, and Andy, 7.

Wolverines In Review

Michigan 21, Northwestern 6

September 11 Evanston Attendance 42,472

As the Big Ten moved to an 11-game schedule Michigan was faced with a conference opponent for the opener for the first time in 25 years. Northwestern was the foe and, having finished tied for second in 1970, considered to be a prime contender for the Big Ten title.

Michigan responded to the challenge, pounding out a 21-6 victory as split end Bo Rather made an auspicious debut on offense. Rather ran 18 yards with an end-around to score one touchdown and recovered a blocked field goal in the end zone for another. Michigan's final score was racked up by Billy Taylor, who gained 105 yards.

The Michigan defense showed its strength by continually shutting off the Wildcats and not allowing a score until a penalty-marred fourth quarter march by Northwestern.

Michigan 56, Virginia 0

September 18 Ann Arbor Attendance 81,391

In their home debut, the Wolverines gave Michigan fans plenty to cheer about as they rolled up 56 points on Virginia. The Cavaliers were never in the game as Michigan scored 35 points in the first half, including two touchdowns by Billy Taylor and a kickoff recovery in the end zone by soph Dave Elliott.

For the first time, Michigan displayed its powerful bench with reserves Ed Shuttlesworth, Bob Thornbladh and Harry Banks all scoring. The defense was just as awesome, holding the Cavaliers to just seven first downs and a record -1 yard passing. For the day Virginia could complete only one pass and gain 78 yards rushing while the Wolverines piled up 491 yards on the ground.

Michigan 38, UCLA 0

September 25 Ann Arbor Attendance 89,177

UCLA was expected to give Michigan a strong challenge but the Wolverines roared to 17 first quarter points and were never headed.

Michigan's defense allowed just 39 yards rushing while intercepting two passes and recovering a fumble. One interception was returned 92 yards for a touchdown by All-American safety Tom Darden.

The Wolverines' slashing ground attack set up one-yard touchdowns by fullbacks Ed Shuttlesworth and Fritz Seyferth and Kevin Casey hit Bo Rather with a 32-yard scoring pass as the Michigan offense controlled the tempo of the game.

A final score was added by Harry Banks while Dana Coin hit five extra points and a 31-yard field goal.

Michigan 46, Navy 0

October 2 Ann Arbor Attendance 68,168

Michigan started slowly, then blasted away at the Middies for 21 points in the fourth quarter and a 46-0 victory.

The Wolverines only had 15 points at halftime but their superior manpower began to show against the spirited sailors in the second half and the bench made the game a runaway. Backup tailback Alan Walker scored twice and reserve Harry Banks once. Mike Oldham completed the scoring on a 49-yard aerial strike from Larry Cipa.

The defense recorded its third straight shutout, allowing Navy only 71 yards in total offense.

Michigan 24, Michigan State 13

October 9 East Lansing Attendance 80,093

Michigan State was the second key conference opponent for Michigan, which disposed of its intrastate rival, 24-13.

The Wolverines broke out of the starting gates quickly as Billy Taylor raced 38 yards for a touchdown. But Taylor was injured and the Wolverine attack stalled until his second half return. At that point he scored once again and set up Tom Slade's nine-yard touchdown run to give Michigan a commanding 24-7 lead.

Taylor ripped for 117 yards in just 15 carries as the Wolverines netted 322 on the ground. On the other side, the Spartans could only gain 59 yards rushing and 129 passing against the Michigan defense.

Michigan 35, Illinois 6

October 16 Ann Arbor Attendance 73,406

Illinois became the first team to score on Michigan in the first quarter and also the first club to take a lead on the Wolverines. The mistake-prone Wolverines appeared ripe for an upset, but the defense held strong, the offense began to mesh and Michigan was headed for its sixth straight victory.

Tom Slade got Michigan rolling by running 25 yards for one score and then Glenn Doughty took over, catching a Slade pass for one touchdown and running for two others. Billy Taylor added Michigan's other marker on a 10-yard run.

Despite their early touchdown, the Illini never could get untracked, gaining only 83 yards for the afternoon.

Michigan 35, Minnesota 7

October 23 Minneapolis Attendance 44,176

Michigan retained the Little Brown Jug, defeating Minnesota, 35-7, but the trophy was easily forgotten amidst a record-shattering performance by Billy Taylor.

Taylor, who had blasted through Gopher defenses for 151 yards in each of his two previous encounters with them, rolled for 166 more as he smashed Ron Johnson's Michigan career rushing record. In addition to his yardage, Taylor also scored twice.

Taylor's first score put Michigan ahead but the Gophers shocked the Wolverines with a 73-yard touchdown pass. After that Michigan's defense became invincible and the ground attack began to roll up the 391 yards it would get for the day.

Fritz Seyferth and Taylor each scored, followed by a Glenn Doughty six pointer. Larry Gustafson finished the scoring by hauling in a five-yard Larry Cipa pass.

Michigan 61, Indiana 7

October 30 Ann Arbor Attendance 75,751

Michigan put on its most impressive offensive show of the season, rolling up 458 yards rushing and 61 points in a crushing of Indiana. Billy Taylor led the parade of runners, gaining 172 yards in only 11 carries and tallying touchdowns on runs of 43 and 66 yards.

Taylor lost another score early in the game when he fumbled in the clear, but QB Tom Slade grabbed the stray ball and raced into the end zone. Tom Darden then demoralized Indiana even more, racing 60 yards with an interception to score — and the rout was on.

Taylor reeled off his two long runs and Michigan was up, 31-0, at halftime. The depth took over in the second half. Alan Walker scored once while fullback Bob Thornbladh hit pay dirt twice.

Michigan scored in every possible manner, running, intercepting, kicking a field goal and even getting a safety.

Michigan 63, Iowa 7

November 6 Ann Arbor Attendance 72,467

The Wolverines put on their most awesome display of the season, smashing through Iowa for 63 points and 493 yards rushing while holding the Hawkeyes to eight yards on the ground. Place kicker Dana Coin set an NCAA record, running his extra point string to 51.

Sophomore fullback Ed Shuttlesworth took advantage of a chance to start and scored three touchdowns and gained 112 yards. Alan Walker came off the bench to score twice while Tom Slade showed the Wolverine aerial arm, hitting Bo Rather with a 24-yard scoring strike.

The Michigan defense was just as strong, intercepting three Iowa passes, recovering a fumble and holding the Hawks to only 97 yards in total offense.

Michigan 20, Purdue 17

November 13 Lafayette Attendance 65,254

Dana Coin, Michigan's golden toe, kicked a 25-yard field goal with 26 seconds left to give the Wolverines a 20-17 victory over Purdue's fired up Boilermakers. Combined with Ohio State's loss, it gave Michigan its 23rd Big Ten Championship.

Purdue fought Michigan's ground game, grudgingly allowing 307 yards rushing. The Boilermakers responded on offense with their excellent passing game and hit for touchdowns of 9 and 66 yards.

Purdue opened the scoring but Michigan came back on one-yard smash by Ed Shuttlesworth. A fumble recovery set up a 20-yard field goal by Coin to give Michigan a halftime lead.

Purdue struck suddenly after the half on a 66-yard bomb to Darryl Stingley but Michigan regained the lead on a Glenn Doughty plunge. The Boilermakers once again tied the score on a Mike Renie field goal to set the stage for Michigan's last drive and Coin's heroics.

Michigan 10, Ohio State 7

November 20 Ann Arbor Attendance 104,016

For the first time in four seasons Michigan and Ohio State didn't tangle for the conference title but the two Big Ten titans still had their pride on the line and the result was a great defensive struggle.

The Michigan defense rose to its greatest height, allowing the hard running Bucks only 78 yards rushing and seven first downs. But a tough Ohio defense and a classic 85-yard punt return by Tom Campana, whose 166 yards on 5 punt returns were the most yards ever by a team against Michigan, had Michigan trailing, 7-3, late in the fourth quarter.

At that point the Wolverines duplicated their last drive against Purdue to go in for the winning score. Billy Taylor made a key first down on a draw play and then Larry Cipa hit Bo Rather with a 22-yard pass for another. Fritz Seyferth got the biggest first down on a fourth down play, setting up Taylor's 21-yard run for the winning touchdown.

Tom Darden then ensured Michigan's first undefeated, untied season since 1948 by making a brilliant interception in the contest's waning moments.

Stanford 13, Michigan 12

January 1, 1972 Rose Bowl Attendance 103,154

Michigan's football team finally tasted defeat when Stanford's Rod Garcia kicked a 31-yard field goal with 12 seconds remaining in the Rose Bowl.

The game had been a classic defensive struggle, with Michigan relying on its ground attack on offense while Stanford attacked through the airways with quarterback Don Bunce.

Michigan scored first when Dana Coin hit a 34-yard field goal in the second quarter and that stood up until Garcia hit from 42 yards in the third quarter. Garcia's first three-pointer followed a great Stanford goal line stand which stopped Michigan inches short of a touchdown.

But the Wolverines blasted back on a Fritz Seyferth plunge to take a 10-3 lead, setting the stage for a wild fourth quarter. A fake punt set up a 24-yard touchdown run by Stanford's Jackie Brown but Michigan regained the lead once more on a safety when Ed Shuttlesworth dropped James Ferguson in the end zone. Then all that remained was Stanford's final drive and Garcia's kick.

Canham Gears

Don Canham
Athletic Director

"College football is a saleable product and it's our job to sell it."

Don Canham, just the fifth athletic director in Michigan history, combines many of the talents of his predecessors, especially that ability to look "down the road a few years."

From the embryonic stage of Wolverine athletics — when first Charles Baird and then Philip Bartelme formed departmental structures and guidelines that would endure over the years — leadership always has been vital to broad athletic success.

While Fielding H. Yost was being criticized for building a football stadium that would seat 79,000, he did not reveal his construction plans would permit additions that could eventually accommodate 100,000 and more.

Then Fritz Crisler applied his unique leadership to the national scene, serving on such groups as the powerful football rules committee. He helped map the direction football would follow.

Organization, building and national athletic policy have been part of Canham's work day since his appointment early in 1968. This was a time of growing financial problems for Michigan as well as intercollegiate athletics, so Canham immediately launched an extensive ticket campaign which would put football ticket coupons in 2.5 million homes.

He asked Michigan's vast alumni group to "join the team" and they responded with scholarship donations. Expenses were trimmed in many areas. Supplementary sources of income, concessions, advertising, parking, were increased. Professional merchandizing was instituted and special events scheduled in Michigan Stadium and Crisler Arena.

Every move was designed to make intercollegiate athletics financially sound at Michigan.

Michigan's mammoth physical plant was not neglected. Artificial grass surfaces were installed in Michigan Stadium and on a practice field, which was lighted and now serves club sports as well. New scoreboards, goal posts, rennovation of Yost Fieldhouse, adding a fence and electric scoreboards to the baseball stadium and construction of a spacious sports service building became crash projects.

As Yost looked to the future with his stadium, so has Canham with his many projects — all designed to keep Michigan competitive in athletics.

Canham was uniquely qualifed for this job. From Oak Park, Ill., he captained Michigan's track team and won the Big Ten and NCAA high jump titles. Graduating in 1941, he entered the Air Force, rising from private to captain in 42 months. He coached at Kankakee, Ill., became an assistant track coach at Michigan and finally head coach, winning 12 conference titles in 12 seasons.

During his coaching career, he built a highly successful sport equipment company which was placed in an irrevocable trust upon his appointment as director in 1968.

Canham serves on the NCAA television committee, is chairman of the NCAA and Big Ten promotions committees and is an active speaker at alumni and business functions.

Dr. Anderson

Dr. O'Connor

Training, Medical Staff

Michigan has comprehensive training and medical staffs to support the football program.

Dr. Gerald O'Connor and Dr. Robert Anderson are team physicians. Dr. O'Connor, who has deep interests in all sports, is an assistant professor of orthopedic surgery at University Hospital. Dr. Anderson, director of University Health Service, has authored several major publications on medical aspects of athletics.

Lindsey McLean, a Vanderbilt graduate, is Michigan's head trainer. He serves as chairman of the Board of Certification for the National Athletic Trainers Association. Len Paddock, Mike Willie and LeRoy Jochim are assistant trainers.

Paddock is in his 26th season of Michigan and regarded as one of the most respected trainers in the nation. Willie, an outstanding prep athlete in New York City, opens his fifth season as chief assistant football trainer. Jochim starts his second season, working in football as well as basketball.

Meet Michigan's President — Robben Fleming

Robben W. Fleming is the ninth president of The University of Michigan. He assumed the presidency on Jan. 1, 1968 after four years as chancellor of the Madison campus of the University of Wisconsin.

Since he was an active participant in athletics both in high school and in college, he has an interest in intercollegiate athletics. He firmly believes that competitive sports have a part to play in the collegiate scene.

President Fleming believes that the discipline imposed by working together on athletic teams carries over into other activities as well as teaching the value of teamwork.

In high school at Paw Paw, Ill., he played football, basketball and baseball. A knee injury sustained in his last year in high school kept him out of football at Beloit College in Wisconsin. He did win three letters at Beloit in basketball and two letters in track.

PRESIDENT FLEMING

Plant Begins 17th Season

Marcus Plant has been Michigan's faculty representative to the Big Ten since 1955 and has served on the Board in control of Intercollegiate Athletics since 1949.

Plant has been a leader in amateur athletics nationally, serving as president of the NCAA (1967-68) and currently is a member of the Olympic executive committee.

GEORGE CAVENDER
Band Director

'M' Band Sets Pattern

The University of Michigan Marching Band, under the direction of George Cavender, has become a "touchstone" for marching bands in America for certainly no other band is observed, imitated, and copied to such an extent across the nation. This is the band which will be present at all home football games to provide Michigan audiences with outstanding halftime entertainment.

Superb musicianship, clever showmanship, imagination, precision marching, standards of excellence and an unexcelled tone have become trademarks of this great marching band.

On Sept. 30th when the Wolverines of Michigan meet the Green Wave of Tulane, half-time ceremonies will center on Michigan's 24th annual Band Day. This gridiron spectacle of some 150 bands from all parts of the state of Michigan is one of the nation's truly great half-time extravaganzas.

On Oct. 28 when Michigan meets the Golden Gophers of Minnesota, former Michigan Bandsmen will return to join the Michigan Band in halftime activities called their "Blast from the Past" as they celebrate Homecoming.

The Michigan Marching Band has approximately 200 members, representing almost every school and college in its membership. One of the most active student organizations on campus, membership in the Marching Band is a prized accomplishment.

The Marching Band is one of seven bands on the Michigan campus whose combined memberships number approximately 500. These include the internationally famous Symphony Band, Symphonic Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, Varsity Band, Wolverine Band and Jazz Band. Truly there is a place for every qualified person interested in being in a band on the Michigan campus.

Director of Bands, George Cavender and his assistant, John Larkins have a 1972 program that promises new shows, new ideas and new half-time thrills.

Michigan Football Awards

Each year, three special awards are given to players on the Michigan football team. The awards are the John F. Maulbetsch Award, the Meyer Morton Award, and the Frederick C. Matthaei Scholarship Award.

Maulbetsch Award

The John F. Maulbetsch Award is given to the freshman football candidate after spring practice on the basis of desire, character, capacity for leadership and future success both on and off the gridiron. It was established by Frederick C. Matthaei in 1954 in honor of the late John F. Maulbetsch, All-American halfback on the 1914 team. The 1972 winner is Dennis Franklin, quarterback from Massillon, Ohio. Past winners on the present squad are Dave Gallagher (1971) and Tom Coyle (1970).

Meyer Morton Award

The Meyer Morton Award is given to the football player who shows greatest development and most promise as a result of the annual spring practice. The award is given in honor of the late Meyer Morton, noted Big Ten official. The 1972 winner is Randy Logan, senior defensive back from Detroit. Last year's honoree was center Guy Murdock.

Matthaei Award

The Frederick C. Matthaei Award is given to the junior-to-be gridder who has displayed leadership, drive, and achievement on the athletic field and in the classroom. The award was established by Frederick C. Matthaei in 1968 and the first recipient was defensive safety Tom Curtis. This year's winner is junior defensive back Tom Drake of Midland, Michigan. Senior linebacker Tom Kee won the award last year.
